

AccesSportAmerica

Challenge 2002: Boston

Benefit for AccesSportAmerica

Date & Place: Saturday, June 8, 2002
Carson Beach (and the islands of Boston Harbor)

Event & Times: Corporate Kayak Challenge 9:30 - 12:30am
Robert Rivers, General Manager, Millennium Bostonian Hotel, Boston, Chair
Each Team of Three raises a minimum of $3,000 by Challenge Day to be matched by his/her corporation. On Challenge Day, each Team kayaks in a race around the islands in Boston Harbor.

The top fund raising Team of Three wins A Weekend for Six at The Millennium Hotel in New York: Two nights, breakfast both mornings AND round trip air, Boston to New York including NY ground transportation. Courtesy of the Millennium Hotels and Delta Airlines.

Winsurf, Row, or Kayak Challenge 1:00 - 3:30pm
Greg Kahler, Co-Chair, Windsurfing
Gary Piantedosi, Co-Chair, Rowing
Mark Sheier, Co-Chair, Kayaking
Each Challenger AND Shore/Water Crew raises a minimum of $1,000 by Challenge Day! Challengers windsurf, kayak or row on Challenge Day.

The top fundraiser wins A Weekend for Two at The Millennium Bostonian: Two nights, breakfast both mornings and parking. Courtesy of The Millennium Bostonian Hotel, Boston.

Special Prizes during the day. The greatest incentive - simply changing lives.

Honorary Chair: Timothy Johnson, M.D., Medical Editor, ABC News

Benefit: Funds raised support AccesSportAmerica dedicated to high-challenge sports and fitness for children and adults with disabilities while encouraging the spirit and challenging the body and mind. Contributions are tax-deductible. Visit our website at www.AccesSportAmerica.org.

Sign Up Today! Please complete Registration Form and return to AccesSportAmerica, 119 High Street, Acton, MA 01720 Attn: Challenge 2002: Boston.

Information: Corporate Kayak Challenge: Please call Robert Rivers at 617 523-3600; for the Windsurf, Row and Kayak Challenge, call Pam Rogers at 978 263-6543. Take the challenge while supporting AccesSportAmerica.